Key Deliverables

ME, MY MOM, AND SHARMILLA, Fawzia Mirza, -Set Supervisor

October 18- November 2nd 2022

- It is my responsibility to communicate with the Costume Designer and Truck Supervisor on any questions, or concerns relating to on set costumes. I'm responsible for staying up to date with the script and any actions regarding costume that involves continuity.
- The physical comfort of the actors is of the utmost importance and it is within my duties to supply, or acquire items that aid in maintaining their comfort and well-being.

SULLIVAN'S CROSSING, Season 1, Jerry Ciccoritti, -BG Supervisor

June- October 2022

- My duties as Background Supervisor included reading scripts. Using the Background Breakdown, I write up Costume guidelines for the characters listed. This information is delivered through the casting company to the selected Background Actors.
- In preparation I gather appropriate garments from the Background Wardrobe or arrange for rented costumes to be delivered to set. On set I coordinate outfits with each Background Actor using their personal articles of clothing and items from the Background Wardrobe. I keep my kit weather ready and will add items to help maintain the comfort of the actors and the aesthetic integrity of their costumes.
